1. About JBW Group and Collect Services ►

In this Privacy Policy references to "we" or "us" are to JBW Group Limited, trading under "JBW Group and Collect Services". We are part of the Outsourcing Inc group of companies.

In order to provide our services, we will collect and use data about individuals. This means that we are a 'data controller' and we are responsible for complying with data protection laws.

We have appointed a data protection officer to oversee our handling of personal information. If you have any questions about how we collect, store or use your personal information, you may contact our data protection officer using the details set out in the "Contact Us" section.

2. Our processing of your personal information ►

The personal information that we collect will depend on our relationship with you. Please look in the section below that best describes your relationship with us.

For example, we will collect more detailed information about you if you are a customer than we would if you simply made an enquiry about the services that we offer.

Sometimes we will ask for information relating to your health which is known as 'special categories of information'. When we are carrying out enforcement activities, we are required to determine whether those subject to enforcement action could be regarded as vulnerable. In order to make this determination we may ask you for, or you may volunteer to give us, information about your vulnerability.

If you provide personal information to us about other people you must provide them with a copy of this Privacy Policy and obtain any consent where we indicate that it is required for the processing of that person's information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Individuals who we collect debt from and carry out enforcement action against (for the purposes of this policy, we shall refer to such individuals as Customers) ►

This section will detail what personal information we collect about you and use if we have been asked to carry out enforcement action against you and collect debt from you on behalf of our Clients.

What will we use your personal information for? ►

We may process your information for a number of different purposes. For each purpose we must have a legal ground for such processing and we will rely on the following legal ground:

- We have a legitimate business need to use your personal information. Such needs will include keeping business records, using your personal information to carry out our debt collection and enforcement services, management information, statistical analysis, developing and testing our systems, analysing our business and improving the services we offer, carrying out strategic reviews of our business model and will cover all activities which are needed to carry out everyday business activities. When relying on this legal ground, we are under a duty to assess your rights and to ensure that we do not use your personal information unless we can demonstrate a legitimate business need.
- It is necessary to comply with a legal obligation. For example our obligations under the law to protect vulnerable people.

When we use your "special categories of personal information" (such as information about your health), we need to have an additional "legal ground" and we will rely on the following "legal ground":

- That it is in the substantive public interest. Such as where it is necessary under the law in order to protect the interests of vulnerable people.

Please see below for further details of the different ways we use your personal information and the legal grounds we rely on when doing so.

2. How do we protect your personal information when sending it abroad? ►

We do not send your personal information outside of the EEA. In the event that this changes, we will notify you.

3. What marketing activities do we carry out? ►

We do not perform any marketing activities that use your personal information.

4. How long do we keep personal information for? ►

We will only keep your personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes set out in section 2 above and to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.

Customers with whom there has been no financial transaction: Deletion of all customer data in all datastores. This will be triggered 4 years after the return of the customer's last case to the client. Older data for customers who have cases that are still live or whose return date is younger than the 4 threshold will not be deleted

Customers with whom there has been a financial transaction. The deletion policy is the same as above, but with a certain subset of data records retained for 7 years. These records are:

- The customer's name and addresses
- Contact details (e.g. email, phone) for the customer
- Case and warrant records for the customer
- Financial transaction records for the customer

Where we receive new occupier evidence and vulnerability evidence which contains your personal information, that evidence will be assessed by our back office team and all photos or scanned documents will be deleted the next working day.

For further information regarding how long your personal information will be kept, please our contact details in see the "Contact us" section.

5. Automated processing ►

We currently undertake some automated processing of your personal information in order to inform our businesses practices, such as comparing your personal information against trends or other data subjects with similar characteristics. None of this processing results in any legal or similar decision making in respect of you.

6. Your rights ►

You have a number of data protection rights which entitle you to request information about your personal information, to dictate what we do with it or to stop us using it in certain ways.

If you wish to exercise the rights set out below, please contact us at any time using the details set out in section 9. There will not normally be a charge for this.

We respect your rights in relation to personal information we hold about you, however we cannot always comply with your requests, for example we may not be able to delete your information if we are required by law to keep it for a longer period of time or if we delete your information we would not have the necessary information we need to.
